

Les Petites Parcelles, Les Petites Parcelles de Dolia, AOC Laudun, Blanc, 2024

AOC Laudun, Vallée du Rhône, France

The 2024 vintage in Southern Rhône benefited from a mild winter and a rainy spring, encouraging early budbreak. The temperate summer allowed for gradual ripening, resulting in lovely freshness, especially in the whites and rosés. The reds, driven by structured Syrah and concentrated Grenaches, are both rich and well-balanced.

PRESENTATION

When the wood whispers its love to the fruit.

This cuvée of small parcels honours its terroir. But by its name "Dolia" also honours the heritage surrounding the village of Laudun, overhung by Caesar's camp and ancient archaeological sites. By bearing this name, this cuvée underlines that this particular terroir had already been spotted by the Romans, who made their best wines from these same plots, which they kept in Dolia (large amphorae) uncovered during archaeological digs carried out on these lands.

TERROIR

This cuvée is the result of a meticulous plot selection mainly carried out on vineyards located on the slopes of Camp de César, a 200m limestone plateau behind the village of Laudun. The poor soils and exposure to the Mistral wind naturally limit the fertility of the vines, which is a guarantee of the quality of the grapes.
